Caribbean - Barbados

May 2014

You will find Barbados quite gluten free aware in the resorts and the fine dining restaurants. We stayed at The Colony Club (near Holetown) and the menus had gluten free (and dairy free and vegetarian) marked up.

I still ate most of the food I took with me to get some carbohydrates and also to have as snacks between meals.

I would like to acknowledge that I found out about many of the restaurants listed here because of the great blog 'Gluten Free Barbados' <http://barbadosglutenfree.com/> and I suggest you use it to get up to date suggestions and to read the reviews. I ate at the restaurants marked with an asterisk and my experiences are on the link below:
